ABOUT L.U.L.A.C.

The League of United Latin American Citizens (L.U.L.A.C.) is the oldest and largest Hispanic organization in the United States. In 1929, three (3) Texas organizations; The Order Sons of American, The Knights of America, and League of Latin American Citizens, merged to form this great organization. They banded together because the members of these organizations knew that by becoming one, they would have a greater impact in developing an awareness of the specific needs, contributions, and culture of Hispanics.

L.U.L.A.C. firmly believes that education is the key in gaining economic, political, and social equality. L.U.L.A.C. also stresses citizenship, improvement of educational opportunities, maintaining our cultural heritage, the extension of human rights, educational excellence, and improvement of economic conditions. One of the most important avenues used by L.U.L.A.C. to implement its long term goals is through L.U.L.A.C. Youth Councils.

L.U.L.A.C. Youth Councils offer training for its members through social, civic, sports and parliamentary activities, Affiliated Youth Councils, organized and chartered through the Youth Organization.

L.U.L.A.C.'S MISSION
